Proven Learning Methodology
The IFSB FIS E-Learning modules use a proven learning methodology to ensure that learners 'connect' with core learning concepts. Rather than just pushing theory, the focus is also on practical performance.

The content has been designed to help understanding and retention of knowledge by utilising familiar, decision-based scenarios with real 'on-the-job' relevance.

Subscription
The modules are available to both IFSB member and non-member organisations by subscription. A certain number of complimentary subscriptions are made available to organisations from the various categories of IFSB membership.
