Prudential and Structural Islamic Financial Indicators (PSIFIs) Updates

This 14th dissemination completes the availability of quarterly data from Q4 of 2013 to Q2 of 2019. This PSIFIs project currently compiles data from Afghanistan, Bahrain, Bangladesh, Brunei, Egypt, Indonesia, Iran, Jordan, Kazakhstan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Libya, Malaysia, Nigeria, Oman, Pakistan, Palestine, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Sudan, Turkey, the United Arab Emirates and the United Kingdom.

Research Working Papers

Three IFSB working papers were approved in the 49th TC Meeting. First, a joint working paper between the IFSB and the Arab Monetary Fund (AMF) on money laundering and financing of terrorism risks in Islamic banking. The paper concluded that both risks are neither peculiar to Islamic banking products, structure and nor Islamic social finance platforms like zakat and waqf. As such, existing Financial Action Task Force (FATF) recommendations and national regulations are sufficient for now.

The second working paper was on Islamic capital market (ICM) intermediaries. It focused on existing ICM intermediaries practices based on related principles in the IFSB 21: Core Principles on Islamic Capital Market (CPICM). The paper concluded that existing licensing and registration processes, risk management and clients' protection practices as provided in the IFSB-21 are adequately complied with and as such the safety and soundness of the ICM is not threatened. The third paper was on regulatory and supervisory issues in Sharia'h compliant hedging instruments. It concluded that though asset-liability alignment and wa'd emerged as the main hedging tools; however, in general, Islamic financial institutions were either not using hedging instruments or lacked the motivation to utilise them. Though specific regulations pertaining to the use of Islamic hedging instruments exist; lack of standardisation across the globe makes the application of hedging instruments very minimal. All the working papers will be issued in December 2019 and available on the IFSB website.

Prudential and Structural Islamic Financial Indicators (PSIFIs)

The Prudential and Structural Islamic Financial Indicators (PSIFIs) are developed by the IFSB with the objective of establishing a global database on Islamic finance in order to facilitate assessment of the strengths and vulnerabilities of Islamic financial systems and support macroprudential oversight of the industry. The PSIFIs database is part of an international effort involving the IFSB, other international organisations and the IFSB member regulatory and supervisory authorities to construct a comprehensive picture of the development of the Islamic financial services industry.

The indicators provide a set of jurisdiction-level, aggregate indicators on the financial soundness, growth, and structure of the Islamic banking system, covering capital adequacy, earnings, liquidity, asset quality, exposures to various types of risks and structural elements such as asset and liability composition, revenues and earnings. Many indicators are parallel to the IMF's Financial Soundness Indicators (FSIs), but are customised to capture information unique to Islamic banks.

Key features of the PSIFIs database

- Publishes aggregated country-level Islamic banking data compiled by banking regulatory and supervisory authorities
- Reports the data separately for stand-alone Islamic banks and Islamic windows of conventional banks
- Provides the data on a quarterly basis, subject to availability
- Comprehensive metadata, providing information / description of the reported data
- Currently comprises data reported by banking regulatory and supervisory authorities from 20 countries: Afghanistan, Bahrain, Bangladesh, Brunei, Egypt, Indonesia, Iran, Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Malaysia, Nigeria, Oman, Pakistan, Palestine, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Sudan, Turkey and United Arab Emirates
- Comprehensive coverage of the Islamic banking sector (the database reflects more than 90% of global Islamic banking assets)
- Indicators are available starting from December 2013

The PSIFIs Database is useful for:

- Financial sector supervisors and policy-makers
- Fund providers and investors
- Academics and researchers
- International agencies and standard-setters in the financial sector
- International financial press and media
- Shari'ah-related stakeholders

Key Benefits:

- Provides a set of reliable and consistent, internationally comparable measures of the soundness, growth and structure of Islamic banking systems
- Strengthens transparency and supports macroprudential analysis and assessment of the structure, state of development and performance of the industry at any given time
- Helps track the progress of the Islamic banking industry in adopting new regulatory standards
- Provides a clear picture of the role and contribution of Islamic banking within national economies and enhances comparability of Islamic finance within and across jurisdictions
